CLERK U.S. DISTRICT COURT
WEST. DIST. OF PENNSYLVANIA

COMPLAINT FOR DAMAGES AND INJUNCTIVE RELIEF

Plaintiff, Airigan Solutions, LLC, hereby sues Defendants, the Individuals, Partnerships, and Unincorporated Associations identified in the Caption, which are set forth in Schedule "A" hereto (collectively "Defendants"). Upon information and belief, Defendants, have cooperated, communicated their plans with one another, shared information, and coordinated their efforts creating an illegal stream of infringing and counterfeit goods and are (i) promoting, selling, offering for sale and distributing goods bearing and/or using counterfeits and confusingly similar imitations of Plaintiff's registered trademark and its trade dress and (ii) promoting, selling, offering for sale and distributing goods infringing Plaintiff's patent within this district through various fully interactive commercial Internet websites and Internet based e-commerce stores, using their respective Store Names and Seller Names, set forth on Schedule “A” hereto (collectively, the “Seller IDs”). In support of its claims, Plaintiff alleges as follows:

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

1. This is an action for federal trademark counterfeiting and infringement; false designation of origin, passing off, and unfair competition; common law unfair competition; common law trademark infringement pursuant to 15 U.S.C. §§ 1114, 1116, 1125(a), and 1125(d); and patent infringement pursuant to 35 U.S.C. § 271 and The All Writs Act, 28 U.S.C. § 1651(a). Accordingly, this Court has subject matter jurisdiction over this action pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 1121 and 28 U.S.C. §§ 1331 and 1338. This Court has supplemental jurisdiction pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1367 over Plaintiff’s state law claims because those claims are so related to the federal claims that they form part of the same case or controversy.

2. This Court may exercise personal jurisdiction over a non-resident of the State in which the Court sits to the extent authorized by the state's laws. Fed. R. Civ. P. 4(e). Pennsylvania authorizes personal jurisdiction over the Defendant pursuant to 42 Pa. Cons. Stat. § 5322 (a) which provides in pertinent part: “A tribunal of this Commonwealth may exercise personal jurisdiction over a person ... as to a cause of action or other matter arising from such person: (1) Transacting any business in this Commonwealth. Without excluding other acts which may constitute transacting business for the purpose of this paragraph: (ii) The doing of a single act in this Commonwealth for the purpose of thereby realizing pecuniary benefit ... (3) Causing harm or tortious injury by an act or omission in this Commonwealth. (4) Causing harm or tortious injury by an act or omission outside this Commonwealth ... (10) Committing any violation within the jurisdiction of the Commonwealth of any statute, home rule charter, local ordinance or resolution, or rule or regulation promulgated thereunder by any government unit or of any order of court or other government unit.” In the alternative, Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 4(k) confers personal jurisdiction over the Defendant because, upon information and belief, Defendants regularly conduct, transact and/or solicit business in Pennsylvania and in this judicial district, and/or derive substantial revenue from their business transactions in Pennsylvania and in this judicial district and/or otherwise avail themselves of the privileges and protections of the laws of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania such that this Court's assertion of jurisdiction over Defendants does not offend traditional notions of fair play and due process, and/or Defendants' illegal counterfeiting and infringing actions caused injury to Plaintiff in Pennsylvania and in this judicial district such that Defendants should reasonably expect such actions to have consequences in Pennsylvania and in this judicial district, for example:

a. Upon information and belief, Defendants were and/or are systematically directing and/or targeting their business activities at consumers in the United States, including Pennsylvania, through on-line platforms with Merchant Storefronts (as defined infra), via on-line marketplace websites, AliExpress.com and eBay.com, under the Seller IDs, as well as any and all as yet undiscovered accounts with Merchant Storefronts held by or associated with Defendants, their respective officers, employees, agents, servants and all persons in active concert or participation with any of them (“User Accounts”), through which consumers in the United States, including Pennsylvania, can view the one or more of Defendants' Merchant Storefronts that each Defendant operates, uses to communicate with Defendants regarding their listings for Counterfeit Products and to place orders for, receive invoices for and purchase Counterfeit Products for delivery in the U.S., including Pennsylvania, as a means for establishing regular business with the U.S., including Pennsylvania.

b. Upon information and belief, certain Defendants are sophisticated sellers, each operating one or more commercial businesses using their respective User Accounts through which Defendants, their respective officers, employees, agents, servants and all persons in active concert of participation with any of them, operate storefronts to manufacture, import, export, advertise, market, promote, distribute, offer for sale and/or otherwise deal in products, including the Counterfeit Products, which are held by or associated with Defendants, their respective officers, employees, agents, servants and all persons in active concert or participation with any of them (“Merchant Storefront(s)”) in wholesale quantities at significantly below-market prices to consumers worldwide, including to those in the U.S., and specifically Pennsylvania.

c. Upon information and belief, Defendants’ Merchant Storefronts reflect multiple sales to consumers all over the world, including repeat sales to consumers in the U.S. and into this judicial district.

d. Upon information and belief, all Defendants accept payment in U.S. Dollars and offer shipping to the U.S., including to Pennsylvania and specifically to the Pennsylvania Address (as defined infra).

e. Upon information and belief, Defendants have transacted business with consumers located in the U.S., including Pennsylvania, for the sale and shipment of Counterfeit Products (as defined infra).

f. Upon information and belief, Defendants are employing and benefiting from substantially similar, paid advertising and marketing and advertising strategies in order to make their Merchant Storefronts selling illegal goods appear more relevant and attractive to search result software across an array of search words, including but not limited to “NEGG”, “EGG PEELER”, and “EGG CRACKER”, and “BOILED EGG PEELER”). By their actions, Defendants are causing concurrent and indivisible harm to Plaintiff and the consuming public by (i) depriving Plaintiff of its right to fairly compete for space within the various on-line marketplace search results and reducing the visibility of the Plaintiff’s genuine NEGG® egg peeler products on various on-line marketplaces and/or diluting and driving down the retail market price for NEGG® egg peelers; (ii) causing an overall degradation of the value of the goodwill associated with Plaintiff’s marks and goods; and (iii) increasing Plaintiff’s overall cost to market their goods and educate consumers about their brands.

g. Upon information and belief, Defendants have cooperated, communicated their plans with one another, shared information, and coordinated their efforts, all in order to create an illegal marketplace operating in parallel to the legitimate marketplace of Plaintiff’s and the legally authorized resellers of Plaintiff’s genuine goods.

h. Upon information and belief, Defendants are concurrently targeting their counterfeiting and infringing activities toward consumers and causing harm in Allegheny County, Pennsylvania.

i. Upon information and belief, Defendants likely reside and/or operate in foreign jurisdictions with lax trademark and patent enforcement systems and are cooperating by creating an illegal stream of infringing and counterfeit goods.

j. Upon information and belief, Defendants are aware of Plaintiff, its genuine NEGG® egg peeler product, and are aware that their illegal counterfeiting and infringing actions alleged herein are likely to cause injury to Plaintiff in the United States, in Pennsylvania and in this judicial district specifically, as Plaintiff conducts substantial business in Pennsylvania.

k. Plaintiff is suffering irreparable and indivisible injury and suffered substantial damages as a result of Defendants' unauthorized and wrongful sale of counterfeit and infringing goods.

3. Venue is proper, inter alia, pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1391 and 28 U.S.C. § 1400(b) because, for example:

a. Upon information and belief, Defendants conduct, transact, and/or solicit business in this judicial district.

b. Upon information and belief, Defendants or their agent(s) may be found in this district because personal jurisdiction is proper in this district.

c. Upon information and belief, this is a judicial district in which a substantial part of the events or omissions giving rise to the infringement claims occurred, or a substantial part of the property that is the subject of the action is situated.

d. Defendants not resident in the United States may be sued in this judicial district because personal jurisdiction is proper in this district.

THE PARTIES

4. Plaintiff, Airigan Solutions, LLC (“Airigan Solutions”) is a limited liability company organized and existing under the laws of the State of Connecticut, having its principal place of business at 107 John Street, Suite 1-C, Southport, Connecticut 06890.

5. Upon information and belief, the Defendants are individuals and/or business entities of unknown makeup, each of whom, upon information and belief, either reside or operate in foreign jurisdictions, or redistribute products from the same or similar sources in those locations.

Defendants have the capacity to be sued pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 17(b).

Defendants target their business activities toward consumers throughout the United States, including within this district, and conduct pervasive business through the operation of, at least, the fully interactive commercial Internet websites and Internet based online marketplace websites via the e-commerce stores existing under the Seller IDs.

6. Upon information and belief, the Defendants use aliases in conjunction with the operation of their businesses as set forth in Schedule “A” hereto.

7. Upon information and belief, Defendants are the past and present controlling forces behind the sale of products bearing and/or using counterfeits and infringements of Plaintiff’s trademark, trade dress, and patent as described herein using at least the Seller IDs.

8. Upon information and belief, Defendants directly engage in unfair competition with Plaintiff by advertising, offering for sale and selling goods bearing and/or using counterfeits and infringements of Plaintiff’s trademark, trade dress, and patent to consumers within the United States and this district through several fully interactive, commercial Internet websites and Internet based e-commerce stores operating under, at least, the storefronts, the Seller IDs, and any additional domain names, websites and corresponding website URLs or seller identifications and store URL aliases not yet known to Plaintiff. Defendants have purposefully directed some portion of their illegal activities towards consumers in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania through the advertisement, offer to sell, sale, and/or shipment of counterfeit and infringing goods into the Commonwealth.

9. Defendants have registered, established or purchased, and maintained the on-line marketplace website storefronts, Seller IDs, and the websites and e-commerce stores operating thereunder. Upon information and belief, Defendants have engaged in fraudulent conduct with respect to the registration of the storefronts and Seller IDs by providing false and/or misleading information to their various registrars and/or to the Internet based e-commerce platforms where they offer for sale and/or sell, during the registration or maintenance process related to their respective Seller ID. Upon information and belief, Defendants have anonymously registered and maintained some of the Seller IDs for the sole purpose of engaging in illegal counterfeiting activities.

10. Upon information and belief, Defendants will continue to register or acquire new seller identification aliases, and consequently new URL addresses in connection therewith, for the purpose of selling and offering for sale goods bearing and/or using counterfeit and confusingly similar imitations of Plaintiff's trademark and trade dress and infringing Plaintiff's patent unless preliminarily and permanently enjoined.

11. Defendants' Internet-based businesses infringe the intellectual property rights of Plaintiff.

12. Defendants' business names, i.e., the Seller IDs, associated payment accounts, and any other alias domain names and seller identification names or store URLs used in connection with the sale of counterfeit and infringing goods bearing and/or using Plaintiffs' respective trademarks, trade dress, and patent are essential components of Defendants' online activities and are the means by which Defendants further their counterfeiting and infringing scheme and cause harm to Plaintiffs. Moreover, Defendants are using Plaintiff's trademark to drive Internet consumer traffic to their websites and e-commerce stores operating under the Seller IDs, thereby creating and increasing the value of the Seller IDs and decreasing the size and value of Plaintiff's legitimate consumer marketplace at Plaintiffs' expense.

COMMON FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

Plaintiff's Business, Trademark, Trade Dress, and Patent Rights

13. Plaintiff sells a unique and revolutionary patented product under the federally registered trademark NEGG® that quickly and easily peels hard boiled eggs.

14. Plaintiff has spent substantial time, money and effort in building up and developing consumer recognition, awareness and goodwill in its NEGG® mark and NEGG® product.

15. The success of the NEGG® product is due in part to Plaintiff's marketing and promotional efforts. These efforts include advertising and promotion through television, retailer websites and other internet-based advertising, print, participation in trade shows, among other efforts, including Pennsylvania.

16. Plaintiff's NEGG® product has been featured on television (the Today Show, Home Shopping Network), newspapers (New York Times, USA Today) and numerous videos on YouTube, Facebook and other social media sites. Numerous videos featuring Plaintiff's NEGG® product have been collectively viewed hundreds of thousands of times, if not millions of times.

17. Plaintiff's NEGG® product is proudly manufactured in the United States using the highest quality materials and processes.

18. Plaintiff owns trademark rights, trade dress, and patent rights regarding its NEGG® product.

a. Plaintiff is the owner of source identifying trademarks, including NEGG® (Reg. No. 5,142,630 attached as Exhibit 1) and trade dress shown in Exhibit 2 that Plaintiff uses to distinguish its unique product. ("Plaintiff's Marks") Plaintiff owns the overall combination and arrangement of all non-functional design elements of Plaintiff's product and packaging, including its product insert, which are inherently distinctive and/or have acquired secondary meaning in the mind of the purchasing public.

b. Plaintiff owns a United States patent for its unique NEGG® product, including U.S. Patent No. 9,968,211 for PERSONAL EGG PEELER (attached as Exhibit 3).

c. Plaintiff also owns copyrights for its packaging, including its product insert.

20. Plaintiff's trademark, trade dress, patent, and copyright rights make it unlawful for competitors to infringe Plaintiff's rights.

a. Because of Plaintiff's NEGG® registered trademark, no competitor can lawfully use Plaintiff's NEGG® registered trademark in a manner that could cause confusion as to source.

b. Because of Plaintiff's copyrights for its packaging and trade dress rights, no competitor can lawfully copy Plaintiff's copyrighted expression or use packaging that could cause a likelihood of confusion as to the source of the competing product.

c. Because of Plaintiff's patent on its NEGG® product, no competitor can lawfully make, use, offer for sale, or sell a competing product that infringes Plaintiff's patent.

21. Like many other rights owners, Plaintiff suffers ongoing daily and sustained violations of its copyright, trademark, trade dress, and patent rights at the hands of counterfeiters and infringers, such as Defendants herein. Plaintiff is harmed, the consuming public is duped and confused, and the Defendants earn substantial profits in connection with the infringing conduct.

22. In order to combat the harm caused by the combined actions of Defendants and others engaging in similar infringing conduct, Plaintiff has expended significant resources in connection with its intellectual property enforcement efforts. The recent explosion of infringement over the Internet has created an environment that requires companies to expend significant time and money across a wide spectrum of efforts in order to protect both consumers and itself from infringement of its copyrights, trademark rights and patent rights.

23. Upon information and belief, at all times relevant hereto, Defendants in this action had full knowledge of Plaintiff's copyrights, trademark rights, trade dress, and/or patent rights, including Plaintiff's exclusive right to use and license such intellectual property and the goodwill associated therewith. Plaintiff has complied with Section 29 of the Lanham Act (15 U.S.C. § 1111) and has provided actual notice of its trademark registration for NEGG®. See Plaintiff's product insert (Exhibit 2).

The Online Marketplace Platform and Defendants' User Accounts

24. Aliexpress.com and eBay.com are online marketplace platforms (also referred to as "Third Party Service Provider(s)" which allow manufacturers, wholesalers and other third party merchants, like Defendants, to advertise, distribute, offer for sale, sell and ship their wholesale and retail products originating from China directly to consumers worldwide and specifically to consumers residing in the United States, including Pennsylvania.

25. Defendants are individuals and/or businesses, who, upon information and belief, are located in China and other foreign countries but conduct business in the United States and other countries by means of their User Accounts and on their Merchant Storefronts on at least the on-line marketplace websites, Aliexpress.com and eBay.com, as well as potentially yet undiscovered additional online marketplace platforms.

26. Through their Merchant Storefronts, Defendants offer for sale and/or sell consumer products, including Counterfeit Products, and target and ship such products to customers located in the United States, including Pennsylvania, and throughout the world.

Defendants' Infringing Activities

27. Upon information and belief, Defendants are promoting and advertising, distributing, selling and/or offering for sale copies of Plaintiff's NEGG® product in interstate commerce that infringes Plaintiff's trademark rights, trade dress rights, and patent rights (collectively referred to as, "Infringing Product(s)" or "Counterfeit Product(s)"), through the fully interactive Internet based e-commerce stores operating under the Seller IDs:

- a. The packaging for Defendants' competing goods uses identical copies of Plaintiff's Mark for different quality goods.

b. The packaging for Defendants' competing goods copies large amounts of Plaintiff's claimed copyrighted expression for its packaging, and the similar trade dress creates a likelihood of confusion as to source.

c. Defendants' competing goods look nearly identical, which creates a likelihood of confusion as to source, as Defendants' competing goods are confusing similar imitations of Plaintiff's product.

d. Defendants make, use, offer for sale, or sell competing products that infringe Plaintiff's patent.

e. Some Defendants have used Plaintiff's NEGG® trademark on packaging or in advertisements to drive sales.

f. Defendants' competing goods are of a quality substantially and materially different than that of Plaintiff's genuine goods.

g. Defendants sell or offer the infringing goods for a retail price below the usual retail price of Plaintiff's genuine patented product.

28. Defendants target their business activities towards consumers throughout the United States, including within Pennsylvania, and this district in Allegheny County, and conduct pervasive business through the operation of, at least, one fully interactive commercial Internet based e-commerce store via, at least, the Internet marketplaces Aliexpress.com and eBay.com, under various Seller IDs, including the Seller IDs in Schedule "A".

29. Defendants have purposefully directed some portion of their illegal activities towards consumers in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania through the advertisement, offer to sell, sale, and/or shipment of infringing goods into the State.

30. Defendants are the past and present controlling forces behind the sale of products that infringe Plaintiff's intellectual property as described herein using at least the Seller IDs in Schedule "A" and the Seller IDs associated with the infringing product ASIN numbers. Defendants have registered, established or purchased, and maintained their Seller IDs.

31. Upon information and belief, some Defendants have anonymously registered and maintained some of the Seller IDs for the sole purpose of engaging in illegal counterfeiting or infringement activities. For example, after notice that a particular Seller Name has sold an infringing product, a new Seller Name will be used to sell the same infringing product under a new number associated with the new Seller Name. Sellers on Aliexpress.com and eBay are also known to change their Seller IDs. The result can be a never ending "Whack-A-Mole" situation where new infringers keep popping up.

32. Upon information and belief, Defendants will continue to register or acquire new Seller ID aliases for the purpose of selling and offering for sale goods that infringe Plaintiff's trademark rights, trade dress rights, and patent rights unless preliminarily and permanently enjoined.

33. Defendants' business names, i.e., Seller IDs, associated payment accounts, and any other alias seller identification names used in connection with the sale of infringing goods are essential components of Defendants' online activities and are one of the means by which Defendants further their infringing scheme and cause harm to Plaintiff. Moreover, Defendants are using without permission Plaintiff's claimed copyrightable materials, trademarks, trade dress and patents to drive Internet consumer traffic to their e-commerce stores operating under their Seller IDs, thereby increasing the value of the Seller IDs and decreasing the size and value of Plaintiff's legitimate marketplace and intellectual property rights at Plaintiff's expense.

Harm to Plaintiff

34. Upon information and belief, Defendants are concurrently targeting their infringing activities toward consumers and causing harm within this district and elsewhere throughout the United States. As a result, Defendants are harming Plaintiff and the consuming public for Defendants' own benefit.

35. By their actions, Defendants have created an illegal marketplace operating in parallel to the legitimate marketplace for Plaintiff's genuine goods. Defendants are causing concurrent and indivisible harm to Plaintiff and the consuming public by (i) depriving Plaintiff and other third parties of their right to fairly compete for space within search engine results and reducing the visibility of Plaintiff's genuine goods on the World Wide Web and internet, including on Aliexpress.com and eBay.com (ii) causing an overall degradation of the value of the goodwill associated with Plaintiff's trademark rights, and (iii) increasing Plaintiff's overall cost to market its goods and educate consumers about its brand via the Internet.

36. Plaintiff is suffering irreparable and indivisible injury and has suffered substantial damages as a result of Defendants' unauthorized and wrongful use of Plaintiff's intellectual property. The natural and intended byproduct of Defendants' actions is the erosion and destruction of the goodwill associated with Plaintiff's name and associated trademarks and the destruction of the legitimate market sector in which it operates.

37. Defendants' infringing products compete directly against Plaintiff's products. Defendants' infringement was a cause in Plaintiff's unit sales decreasing during the last several months over the same time period the previous year. Plaintiff has thus lost profits.

38. Plaintiff has suffered and will suffer irreparable injury as a result of Defendants' continued sale of infringing products, and monetary damages are inadequate to compensate Plaintiff for Defendants' continued sale of infringing products.

a. Defendants sell cheaper and inferior competing egg peeler products that infringe upon Plaintiff's claimed copyrightable materials, trademarks, trade dress, and patents. Defendants' sale of infringing products has caused Plaintiff loss of market share, reputational harm, lost profits and/or jeopardy to Plaintiff's competitive position.

b. Plaintiff cannot effectively exercise its rights under copyright, trademark, trade dress, and patent which also damages Plaintiff's relationship with its actual and/or potential re-sellers.

c. Defendants have infringed in the past and threaten to infringe in the future.

39. Upon information and belief, Defendants' payment and financial accounts are being used by Defendants to accept, receive, and deposit profits from Defendants' trademark counterfeiting and infringing and unfairly competitive activities connected to their Seller IDs and any other alias domain names or seller identification names being used and/or controlled by them.

40. Plaintiff has no adequate remedy at law. Upon information and belief, Defendants are likely to transfer or secret their assets to avoid payment of any monetary judgment awarded to Plaintiff.

41. Defendants would suffer no cognizable harm from ceasing infringing conduct.

a. Defendants have no right to sell products that infringe Plaintiff's copyrights, trademark rights, trade dress rights, and patent rights.

b. Defendants sell other products, so they would suffer little harm if they stopped selling the infringing products at issue in this lawsuit.

c. Plaintiff will suffer great harm to its competitive position and business if Defendants sell products that infringe Plaintiff's rights.

42. The public interest will be served when it protects Plaintiff from infringement of its copyright, trademark and/or patent rights.

43. Defendants are engaging in the above-described illegal counterfeiting and infringing activities knowingly and intentionally or with reckless disregard or willful blindness to Plaintiff's rights. If Defendants' infringing activities are not preliminarily and permanently enjoined by this Court, Plaintiff and the consuming public will continue to be harmed.

COUNT I - TRADEMARK COUNTERFEITING AND INFRINGEMENT
PURSUANT TO § 32 OF THE LANHAM ACT (15 U.S.C. § 1114)

44. Plaintiff hereby adopts and re-allege the allegations set forth in the preceding paragraphs as if set forth herein.

45. This is an action for trademark counterfeiting and infringement against Defendants based on their use of counterfeit and confusingly similar imitations of Plaintiff's Mark in commerce in connection with the promotion, advertisement, distribution, offering for sale, and sale of the Counterfeit Goods.

46. Specifically, Defendants are promoting and otherwise advertising, selling, offering for sale, and distributing products bearing and/or using counterfeits and/or infringements of one or more of Plaintiff's Marks. Defendants are continuously infringing and inducing others to infringe Plaintiff's Marks by using them to advertise, promote, offer to sell, and/or sell goods bearing and/or using Plaintiff's Marks.

47. Defendants' concurrent counterfeiting and infringing activities are likely to cause and actually are causing confusion, mistake and deception among members of the trade and the general consuming public as to the origin and quality of Defendants' Counterfeit Goods.

48. Defendants' unlawful actions have caused and are continuing to cause unquantifiable damages to Plaintiff and are unjustly enriching Defendants with profits at Plaintiff's expense.

49. Defendants' above-described illegal actions constitute counterfeiting and infringement of Plaintiff's Marks in violation of Plaintiff's rights under § 32 of the Lanham Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1114.

50. Plaintiff has suffered and will continue to suffer irreparable injury and damages due to Defendants' above described activities if Defendants are not preliminarily and permanently enjoined. Additionally, Defendants will continue to wrongfully profit from their illegal activities.

51. Based on Defendants' actions as alleged herein, Plaintiff is entitled to injunctive relief, damages for the irreparable harm that Plaintiff has sustained, and will sustain, as a result of Defendants' unlawful and infringing actions, as alleged herein, and all gains, profits and advantages obtained by Defendants as a result thereof, enhanced discretionary damages, treble damages and/or statutory damages up to $2,000,000 per counterfeit mark per type of goods sold, offered for sale or distributed and reasonable attorneys' fees and costs.

COUNT II - FALSE DESIGNATION OF ORIGIN, PASSING OFF & UNFAIR COMPETITION PURSUANT TO § 43(a) OF THE LANHAM ACT (15 U.S.C. § 1125(a))

52. Plaintiff hereby adopts and re-allege the allegations set forth in the preceding paragraphs as if set forth herein.

53. Plaintiff's Marks are inherently distinctive and/or have acquired distinctiveness.

54. Upon information and belief, Defendants' Counterfeit Goods using, offered for sale, and sold under copies of Plaintiff's Mark have been widely advertised, offered for sale, and distributed throughout the United States via Internet websites and Internet marketplace websites.

55. Defendants' Counterfeit Goods using, offered for sale and sold under copies of Plaintiff's Mark are virtually identical in appearance to Plaintiff's respective, genuine goods. However, Defendants' Counterfeit Goods are different and likely inferior in quality. Accordingly, Defendants' activities are likely to cause confusion in the trade and among the general public as to at least the origin or sponsorship of their Counterfeit Goods.

56. Defendants, upon information and belief, have used in connection with their advertisement, offers for sale, and sale of the Counterfeit Goods, false designations of origin and false descriptions and representations, including words or other symbols and trade dress which tend to falsely describe or represent such goods and have caused such goods to enter into commerce with full knowledge of the falsity of such designations of origin and such descriptions and representations, all to Plaintiff's detriment.

57. Defendants have authorized infringing uses of Plaintiff's Mark in Defendants' advertisement and promotion of their counterfeit and infringing branded goods. Defendants have also misrepresented to members of the consuming public that the Counterfeit Goods being advertised and sold by them are genuine, non-infringing goods.

58. Defendants knowingly and willfully used in commerce products and/or packaging designs that are identical or confusingly similar to, and constitute reproductions of Plaintiff's Marks and affixed, applied and used false designations of origin and false and misleading descriptions and representations on or in connection with the manufacturing, importing, exporting, advertising, marketing, promoting, distributing, displaying, offering for sale and/or sale of Counterfeit Products with the intent to cause confusion, to cause mistake and to deceive the purchasing public into believing, in error, that Defendants' substandard Counterfeit Products are Plaintiff's or related products, and/or that Defendants' Counterfeit Products are authorized, sponsored, approved, endorsed or licensed by Plaintiff and/or that Defendants are affiliated, connected or associated with Plaintiff, thereby creating a likelihood of confusion by consumers as to the source of such Counterfeit Products, and allowing Defendants to capitalize on the goodwill associated with, and the consumer recognition of, the Plaintiff's Marks and products, to Defendants' substantial profit in blatant disregard of Plaintiff's rights.

59. Additionally, Defendants are using counterfeits and infringements of Plaintiff's Marks in order to unfairly compete with Plaintiffs and others for space within search engine organic results, thereby jointly depriving Plaintiffs of a valuable marketing and educational tool which would otherwise be available to Plaintiffs and reducing the visibility of Plaintiff's genuine goods on the World Wide Web.

60. Defendants' above-described actions are in violation of Section 43(a) of the Lanham Act, 15 U.S.C. §1125(a).

61. Plaintiffs have no adequate remedy at law, and have each sustained indivisible injury and damage caused by Defendants' concurrent conduct. Absent an entry of an injunction by this Court, Defendants will continue to wrongfully reap profits and Plaintiff will continue to suffer irreparable injury to their respective goodwill and business reputations, as well as monetary damages.

62. Based on Defendants' wrongful conduct, Plaintiff is entitled to injunctive relief as well as monetary damages and other remedies as provided by the Lanham Act, including damages that Plaintiff has sustained and will sustain as a result of Defendants' illegal and infringing actions as alleged herein, and all gains, profits and advantages obtained by Defendants as a result thereof, enhanced discretionary damages and reasonable attorneys' fees and costs.

COUNT III – PATENT INFRINGEMENT (35 U.S.C. § 271(a))

63. Plaintiff hereby adopts and re-allege the allegations set forth in the preceding paragraphs as if set forth herein.

64. Plaintiff is the owner of U.S. Patent No. 9,968,211 ("the '211 patent"), issued May 15, 2018, for "PERSONAL EGG PEELER" and which covers Plaintiff's NEGG® product. A true and correct copy of which is attached as Exhibit 3.

65. Defendants have infringed and continue to infringe the '211 patent either directly or indirectly through acts of contributory infringement or inducement in violation of 35 U.S.C. § 271, by making, using, selling, importing and/or offering to sell infringing products, namely the personal egg peelers that are nearly identical to Plaintiff's NEGG® product.

66. Defendants' infringement, contributory infringement and/or inducement to infringe has injured Plaintiff and it, therefore, is entitled to recover damages adequate to compensate it for such infringement, but in no event less than a reasonable royalty.

67. Defendants' infringement, contributory infringement and/or inducement to infringe has been willful and deliberate because Defendants have notice of or knew of the '211 patent and have nonetheless injured and will continue to injure Plaintiff, unless and until this Court enters an injunction, which prohibits further infringement and specifically enjoins further manufacture, use, sale, importation and/or offer for sale of products or services that come within the scope of the '211 patent.

68. Based on Defendants' wrongful conduct, Plaintiff is entitled to injunctive relief as well as monetary damages and other remedies as provided by the Patent Act, including damages that Plaintiff has sustained and will sustain as a result of Defendants' illegal and infringing actions as alleged herein, enhanced discretionary damages and reasonable attorneys' fees and costs.

COUNT IV - COMMON LAW UNFAIR COMPETITION

69. Plaintiff hereby adopts and re-allege the allegations set forth in the preceding paragraphs as if set forth herein.

70. This is an action against Defendants based on their promotion, advertisement, distribution, sale, and/or offering for sale of goods bearing and/or using marks that are virtually identical, both visually and phonetically, to Plaintiff's Marks in violation of Pennsylvania's common law of unfair competition.

71. Specifically, Defendants are promoting and otherwise advertising, selling, offering for sale, and distributing goods bearing and/or using counterfeits and infringements of Plaintiff's Marks. Defendants are also using counterfeits and infringements of Plaintiff's Mark® to unfairly compete on Aliexpress.com and eBay.com, with Plaintiff and others for space in search results across an array of search terms, including but not limited to Plaintiffs NEGG trademark.

72. Defendants' infringing activities are likely to cause and actually are causing confusion, mistake, and deception among members of the trade and the general consuming public as to the origin and quality of Defendants' products by their use of Plaintiff's Marks.

73. Plaintiff has no adequate remedy at law and are suffering irreparable injury and damages as a result of Defendants' actions.

74. As a result of Defendants' actions alleged herein, Plaintiff is entitled to injunctive relief, an order granting Plaintiff's damages and Defendants' profits stemming from their infringing activities, and exemplary or punitive damages for Defendants' intentional misconduct.
